ONE PEACE BOOKS

FALL 2019

WHO IS ONE PEACE BOOKS?

One Peace Books was founded in 2006 to translate and publish Japanese entertainment and literature for a North American audience. As the brainchild of successful Japanese publisher Sanctuary Books, One Peace Books occupies a unique place in the publishing industry—able to fully leverage the connections and industry knowledge to publish Japanese literature in translation.

As One Peace Books has grown, we've utilized those connections and passions to expand our publishing model to include original publications by other artists and writers as well. It is our hope in this way to act as a bridge between cultures. Publishing both Japanese translations and original publications is, in our own small way, an attempt to show that it truly is not language or borders that divide us.

As our catalog of North American titles expands, our relationship with our Japanese founders will allow the door to swing both ways by introducing our original North American publications back into Asia—our own small contribution to a more interconnected world built on mutual respect. We believe that art and entertainment is an infectious, necessary, endlessly enjoyable way to bring diverse sets of people together to share in a singular cause or emotion.

One World. One Love. One Peace.

THE HAT BOYZ

Graphic Novel | On sale 10.08.19

Benny, a half black, half Mexican teenager, is awaiting a letter from the court to find out if he'll be sent to an affluent neighborhood to live with his father. But before the letter arrives, he's extorted by his mother's boyfriend. Now he has to sell drugs to keep his addicted mother out of prostitution. The only thing is, he doesn't know how. Only his street-smart Chicano friend Indie can help out. To finish the job, the two attend a backyard punk show in South Central LA. But when things go wrong, Benny comes face to face with the LAPD in an uncompromising situation.

Written by a Watts native, The Hat Boyz explores the world of a naïve young man growing up in America and the relationship of a historically underserved community with the police.

ERICK PEPPER RIVERA is a composer and cartoonist. As a Watts native, his work often explores the relationship between art and society. Rivera is a member of the Los Angeles-based collective The Tables which produces music videos, infomercials, comics, short films, and a podcast. He graduated with a BFA from the California Institute of the Arts. Erick currently writes music for picture and draws comics/zines in Los Angeles, where he lives with his wife and lazy dog.

It has been some time since Hina first used her immense powers to threaten Nitta and claim a spot in his home—settling into her new life in modern Japan and spending most of her time lazing about. But now, something seems to have changed. First, Hina’s inner hard-rockin’ spirit begins to thrash out. Then, she gets herself involved in the world of shady lending. And finally, she starts . . . taking lessons in social etiquette and the arts? What on earth has gotten into this girl?!

MASAO OHTAKE is the author of the hit manga Hina Matsuri. It has been adapted into an animated series that is now airing.

"You rescued me from a world without sound. If it wasn't for you, I never would've known the world was such an amazing place!"

Kohei is a college student who, because of his hearing loss, tends to distance himself from others. His attitude starts to change after he crosses paths with an ever-optimistic classmate named Taichi. And over time, the two begin to develop feelings for each other. As the story continues, the pair tries to balance their budding relationship alongside Taichi's inspiring new career and Kohei's continued studies at school. But the harder they try to make things work, the more misunderstandings they seem to encounter.

YUKI FUMINO'S first manga, I Hear the Sunspot, received a great deal of attention upon its publication in 2014, quickly leading to the development of a feature film. The exceptional talent on display in her debut project has made her one of the most watched and up-coming manga-ka in the BL world.

Eruna Ichinomiya is preparing to enter high school, but there’s just one problem—none of the schools interest her! The uniforms are all too boring, until she discovers Mikagura Academy. After Eruna miraculously passes the entrance exam, she discovers that Mikagura Academy isn’t a typical school. Mikagura Academy only allows students to form culture-themed school clubs, participation in those clubs is compulsory, and there is a battle system where students must compete with each other as representatives of their clubs. Now Eruna must discover her own power and win her first battle!

Last Note. is a well-known vocaloid artist, who created the popular composition TensionMax. This music was the basis for inspiration behind the light novel series Mikagura School Suite, which has subsequently spawned both a manga and hit animated series.

BLUES FOR LADY DAY THE STORY OF BILLIE HOLIDAY BY PAOLO PARISI

ISBN: 978-1-64273-021-0
Paperback | $14.95 | 112 pages | 7 X 10 in.
Graphic Novel | On sale now!

Billie Holiday, one of the greatest jazz singers of all time, had a troubled life: a childhood in poverty, brothels, jail, broken love, and a dependence on alcohol and heroin. Her first performances in the night clubs of prohibitionist America was where her pioneering vocal style was born—later to become a lasting influence on jazz, pop, and modern music to this day.

Performing with jazz legends such as Lester Young, Louis Armstrong, Count Basie, and Artie Shaw, she became a true American icon. This graphic novel, told through short biographical fragments, is the story of Lady Day.

PAOLO PARISI is a professional graphic designer, illustrator, and artist who regularly collaborates with major Italian publishers. He has worked with companies in countries all over the globe, including England, France, Japan, Denmark, Brazil, and the United States. His latest graphic novels are Coltrane and Blues for Lady Day. He has also collaborated with London-based music label Soul Jazz Records. Paolo currently lives in Rome, Italy.

SCHOOLGIRL
BY OSAMU DAZAI
TRANSLATED BY ALLISON MARKIN POWELL

ISBN: 978-1-935548-08-9
Paperback | $ 11.95 | 104 pages | 5X7 in. | Fiction

Essentially the start of Dazai’s career, Schoolgirl gained notoriety for its ironic and inventive use of language. Now it illuminates the prevalent social structures of a lost time, as well as the struggle of the individual against them—a theme that occupied Dazai’s life both personally and professionally. This new translation preserves the playful language of the original and offers the reader a new window into the mind of one of the greatest Japanese authors of the 20th century.

NIGHT ON THE GALACTIC RAILROAD
AND OTHER STORIES FROM IHATOV
BY KENJI MIYAZAWA

ISBN: 978-1-935548-35-5
Paperback | $ 11.95 | 112 pages | 5X7 in. | Fiction

Kenji Miyazawa (1896-1933) is one of Japan’s most beloved writers and poets, known particularly for his sensitive and symbolist children’s fiction. This volume collects stories which focus on Miyazawa’s love of space and his use of the galaxy as a metaphor for the concepts of purity, self-sacrifice and faith which were near and dear to his heart. “The Nighthawk Star” follows an lowly bird as he struggles to transform himself into something greater, a constellation in the night sky; “Signal & Signal-less” depicts a pair of star-crossed train signals who dream of eloping to the moon; and “Night on the Galactic Railroad,” Miyazawa’s most famous work, tells the story of two boys as they journey upon a train that traverses the cosmos, learning the true meaning of friendship, happiness and life itself along the way.

MY FIRST KAFKA
RUNAWAYS, RODENTS & GIANT BUGS
BY MATTHUE ROTH
ILLUSTRATED BY ROHAN DANIEL EASON

ISBN: 978-1-935548-25-6
Hard cover | $18.95 | 32 pages | 8X10 in. | Children’s Picture Book / JUV Fiction

Runaway children who meet up with monsters. A giant talking bug. A secret world of mouse-people. The stories of Franz Kafka are wondrous and nightmarish, miraculous and scary. In My First Kafka, storyteller Matthue Roth and artist Rohan Daniel Eason adapt three Kafka stories into startling, creepy, fun stories for all ages. With My First Kafka, the master storyteller takes his rightful place alongside Maurice Sendak, Edward Gorey, and Lemony Snicket as a literary giant for all ages.

MATTHUE ROTH is a writer and video game designer. His first novel, Never Mind the Goldbergs, was nominated as an ALA Best Book and named a Best Book by the New York Public Library. He co-produced the irreverent animated Bible series G-dcast, and his screenplay 1/20 was produced as a feature film. He lives in Brooklyn with his wife, the chef Itta Roth, and their children, and he keeps a secret diary at www.matthue.com.

ROHAN DANIEL EASON studied Fine Art Painting in Kingston, London in 2000. On graduating he turned to fashion, creating fabric prints and concepts for Italian designer, Annette Olivieri. Rohan creates images for editorial media, publishing, and advertising. He is the illustrator of Geoff Cox’s Anna and the Witch’s Bottle and James Palumbo’s Tancredi. Rohan presently lives in London, England.

3 KAFKA STORIES REIMAGINED FOR ALL AGES

“The adaptation is so smooth, and the stories so naturally eerie and imaginative, that if it rhymed one would assume Seuss wrote it.”
— The New Yorker

“Creepy Cute.”
— WIRED

“Matthue Roth continues to astound with his brilliance and novelty. Everything he touches turns to mystical and delightful artistic gold. Fearless, funny, and fantastically fantastical.”
— Mayim Bialik, Ph.D., actress, The Big Bang Theory
